

Navigating the Complexities of Advanced Physiotherapy Practice

Friday 24th May 2019 Tynecastle Stadium, Edinburgh

This unique day aims to promote and update advanced critical thinking skills underpinning best practice across a range of complex pathologies. To enable delegates to critically reflect on all aspects of the advanced practice pillars 'clinical', 'leadership', 'facilitated learning', 'research' and 'audit'.

8:30-8:55				Registration and coffee
8.55-9:00		Welcome and housekeeping			APPN
9:00-10:30		Clinical	The Complexities of Functional Disorders: Medical and Physiotherapy Management		Professor. Jon Stone Consultant Neurologist (Western General Hospital, Edinburgh)
		Clinical			Ms. Alisa Winters Advanced Practice Physiotherapist (Western General Hospital, Edinburgh)
10:30-11:00		Morning Tea and Coffee : Poster Viewing
11:00-11:45		Clinical	Realistic Prescribing: The Pain Management Conundrum		Ms. Deborah Steven Lead Pharmacist Pain Management (Queen Margaret Hospital, Dunfermline)
11:45-12:15		Leadership	Rapid 5s Clinical Redesign and Cases x4		1. Ms. Morag Watson, Lead Advanced Practice Physiotherapist: 'Solution Focused Therapy in Service Users with Complex Needs' (Victoria Hospital, Kirkcaldy) 2-4. TBC
		Clinical
		Facilitated Learning
		Research
12:15-13:00		Leadership	Advanced Leadership for the Complex		Dr. Grant Syme Consultant Physiotherapist (Victoria Hospital, Kirkcaldy)
		Research
13.00-13:30 - 14:15		Annual General Meeting (AGM) Lunch and Networking
14:15-15:00		Clinical	Managing Diagnostic Uncertainty in Primary Care		Dr. Kirsty Brightwell Associate Medical Director (NHS Western Isles)
		Facilitated Learning
15:00-15:45		Clinical	Design and Evaluation of Complex Healthcare Interventions		Dr. James Greenwood Advanced Practice Physiotherapist (The National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery, London)
		Research
15:45-16:30		Clinical	The Cervical Spine: Neurosurgical Complexities		Mr. Ioannis Fouyas Consultant Neurosurgeon (Western General Hospital, Edinburgh)
16:30-17:00		Close		Programme times are subject to change			